

PM Technology Integration Practices (TIPs™)

COMMON_d Project Management Technology Integration Practices (TIPs™) will give you a process and methodology that is consistent throughout the project lifecycle.

An important part of our project manager's job is to represent both teams and to communicate with the customer. Our PM Methodology strives to develop a friendly, honest, and open relationship with our clients.

The current market is changing everything. In this economy, competition is growing, margins are shrinking, and organizations are asked to do more for less. Meeting the demands of the changing economy requires good project management and effective leaders. The COMMON_d PM process and methodology provides our clients with the structure, flexibility, and control they need.

“What do I have?”

With COMMON_d's PM TIPs™, we will assist your company in planning and managing your project from start to finish.

“What am I paying for?”

COMMON_d's PM TIPs™ will help you monitor and track your project throughout the entire project lifecycle. This will help you stay on top of schedules, deliverables, and expenses.

“How efficient is it?”

With the COMMON_d's PM TIPs™, we will monitor the progress of the project against the project plan. Your company will have consistent status reports and weekly team meetings to control resource and budget allocations.

“Can I do more for less?”
